Meet the EOC Team...

Andrea Adams,
Program Coordinator

I love seeing how my actions make a positive difference by helping someone to overcome challenges and take steps towards living the best life they desire.

Torian Green,
Outreach Specialist

Helping others is important to me because knowing that I can possibly help turn a person in the right direction by a simple comment, action or gesture. It is reassuring that something I said or did during the course of a workday could potentially help others to achieve their goals.

Hilda Sierra,
Outreach Specialist

Helping others is rewarding for many reasons, but most importantly recognizing that I've helped change and inspire someone's search for education and self-improvement. It is important for people to know that there is help and resources available and our EOC team is more than happy to help, no matter the situation.
